

Civil Case Information Statement Form

1. Enter the caption or title of the case as it appears on the papers from the trial court or State agency from which you are appealing.
2. Enter the number assigned the case by the trial court or agency from which you are appealing.
3. Check the appropriate box indicating if you were the "Plaintiff", "Defendant", or "Other" below. As you are representing yourself pro se, enter your own name, address, including any email address, and daytime telephone number. If you are not an attorney at law admitted to practice in the State of New Jersey, the only "CLIENT" whom you can represent is yourself.
4. Enter the names, addresses, including any email addresses, and telephone numbers of the attorneys who represented the other parties in the trial court or agency and the names of their clients.
5. Briefly summarize the terms of the judgment, order or decision which is the subject of this appeal, including its date, and attach a copy.
6. Answer whether there are any claims against any party below which have not been disposed of. If the answer is "No", then you may properly proceed with the filing of a notice of appeal. If the answer is "Yes", then you should immediately move for leave to appeal unless the trial court has certified the determination as final pursuant to Court Rule 4:42-2. If the determination does not dispose of all the claims as to all parties, and the trial court has not certified it as final pursuant to Court Rule 4:42-2, then leave to appeal must be sought. Answer whether any claims were dismissed without prejudice. If the answer is "Yes", explain any agreement concerning future disposition of those claims.
7. Check the appropriate box.
8. Briefly summarize the facts and the procedural history of the case.
9. List the issues which you plan to raise in your appeal.
10. If applicable, answer whether the trial judge issued oral or written findings or an opinion and, if so, set forth on what date.
11. Answer whether you or anyone you know of has an appeal that is pending or about to be brought before this court which involves substantially the same case as your appeal. If you cannot answer "Yes" or "No", you may answer "Unknown".
12. Answer whether you know of any other appeal that is pending or about to be brought before this court which involves an issue similar to or related to an issue in your appeal. If you do not have this information available and cannot answer "Yes" or "No", you may answer "Unknown".

13. Answer whether there was a prior appeal in this court involving this same case or controversy.
14. List the case name and Appellate Division docket number for any appeal indicated in 11, 12 or 13 above.
15. Check the appropriate box as to whether you think the case may benefit from a Civil Appeals Settlement Program conference and explain your answer.
16. Read and note the statement you are certifying to concerning confidential personal identifiers. (Rule 1:38-7 can be found on the Judiciary's website.)
17. Enter your name on the line.
18. Enter your name on the line as you are representing yourself pro se.
19. Enter the date on the line.
20. Sign your name on the line.

Civil appeals are screened for submission to the Civil Appeals Settlement Program (CASP) to determine their potential for settlement or, in the alternative, a simplification of the issues and any other matters that may aid in the disposition or handling of the appeal. Please consider these when responding to the following question. A negative response will not necessarily rule out the scheduling of a preargument conference.

State whether you think this case may benefit from a CASP conference. YES NO

Explain your answer:

I certify that confidential personal identifiers have been redacted from documents now submitted to the court, and will be redacted from all documents submitted in the future in accordance with Rule 1:38-7(b).
