

NOTICE TO THE BAR

COVID-19 -- HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS INVOLVED IN PANDEMIC RESPONSE NOT REQUIRED TO APPEAR FOR COURT OR SUBMIT TO DEPOSITIONS THROUGH FEBRUARY 28, 2022

Nurses, doctors, and other healthcare workers are providing critical frontline care as New Jersey battles another wave of the COVID-19 virus. Accordingly, the Supreme Court has temporarily reinstated the suspension of requirements for healthcare professionals involved in responding to COVID-19 to appear for depositions or court proceedings, except for appearances and depositions (i) that are requested by the doctor, nurse, or healthcare professional; or (ii) that are for time-sensitive matters related to COVID-19. The Court's December 30, 2021 Order is attached.

Questions should be directed to the Office of the Administrative Director of the Courts at (609) 376-3000.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Glenn A. Grant", is written over a horizontal line.

Glenn A. Grant
Administrative Director of the Courts

Dated: December 30, 2021