Subj: Updated Pretrial Intervention (PTI) Application

Date: October 19, 2018

This Supplement to Directive # 14-05 ("Standardized Pretrial Intervention Program (PTI) Forms") promulgates an updated Pretrial Intervention (PTI) Application form approved by the Judicial Council for immediate use in accordance with the new PTI rules (R. 3:28-1 through 3:28-10) that the Supreme Court adopted effective July 1, 2018 and revised effective September 1, 2018.

Directive # 14-05 (issued October 4, 2005) and the January 2, 2007 Supplement promulgated a number of standard forms for processing PTI cases. The appended PTI Application form replaces Attachment 1 to the directive ("Pretrial Intervention Program Summary and PTI Application"). All of the other PTI forms¹ contained in the 2005 Directive and the 2007 Supplement remain in effect (though updated versions are being developed).

The PTI Application was updated to set forth the eligibility criteria contained in revised R. 3:28-1 ("Eligibility for Pretrial Intervention"). The form also reminds defendants when a statement of compelling reasons must be submitted as part of the application. For example, a statement of compelling reasons must be submitted for defendants who have: (1) a current charge that has a presumption of incarceration or a mandatory minimum period of parole ineligibility (see section II "Current Charges"), or (2) a prior indictable/felony conviction (see section III "Prior Criminal Record") pursuant to R. 3:28-3(b)(1). Upon receipt, Criminal Division staff will forward the application and statement to the prosecutor's office.

¹ Specifically, the PTI forms that remain in effect and should continue to be used are as follows: (1) PTI Order of Postponement, (2) Standard Conditions of PTI Supervision, (3) Special Conditions of PTI Supervision, (4) PTI Order of Termination, (5) PTI Order of Dismissal and Order to Discharge Bail, and (6) PTI Order of Dismissal, Order to Discharge Bail, and Order of Entry of Civil Judgment by Confession.

The prosecutor's office must then provide a written response indicating their decision either to consent or to refuse to consent to further consider the application. Pursuant to R. 3:28-3(b)(2), that written response must be provided to the defendant, defendant's attorney, and the Criminal Division within 14 days after receipt of the application. It should be noted that applications that contain a "yes" response to the question that asks whether the prosecutor has provided such consent does not remove the need for the prosecutor to provide a written response. Criminal Division staff will not consider the merits of the application until receipt of the prosecutor's written consent to further consider the application. See R. 3:28-3(b)(2).

A statement of compelling reasons is also required to be submitted for charges that carry a presumption against admission to PTI pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:43-12(b)(2). See R. 3:28-1(e)(3). Specifically, there is a presumption against admission (1) for a defendant who is a public officer or employee and the charge(s) involved their office or employment; or (2) where the charge(s) involves domestic violence and (a) was committed when a temporary or final restraining order was in effect, or (b) the charge(s) involves violence or the threat of violence.

Defense attorneys should assist their clients in filling out the application to ensure that defendants understand the eligibility criteria under the new PTI rules. Additionally, the form requires the contact information and signature of defense counsel (Section V "Representation").

The PTI application form is available for downloading on the Judiciary's website at https://www.njcourts.gov/forms/12305_pti_app.pdf. Copies can also be obtained in the Criminal Division management office at the county courthouses.

Questions or comments regarding the updated PTI application form or about the other forms promulgated by Directive # 14-05 may be directed to Sue Callaghan, Assistant Director for Criminal Practice, by email at sue.callaghan@njcourts.gov or by phone at 609-815-2900 extension 55300.
