

Protocol to Implement L. 2003, c. 301 – Referrals to DYFS
(a) In Cases Involving the Care of Minor Children of Persons
Being Incarcerated;
(b) In Cases Involving Persons Convicted of Certain Enumerated Offenses Where Victim Was Under Age 18

Directive #4-04
Issued by:

April 13, 2004
Richard J. Williams
Administrative Director

This Directive promulgates the two-part protocol developed by the Conferences of Criminal Presiding Judges and Criminal Division Managers in conjunction with the Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS) in the Department of Human Services to implement L. 2003, c. 301. That legislation, signed into law on January 14, 2004 and effective as of April 13, 2004, (a) establishes requirements for the collection of information regarding the care of minor children when the sole caretaker is being incarcerated and for referrals to DYFS in certain such situations; and (b) provides for referrals to DYFS in certain instances where an individual is convicted of one or more specifically enumerated offenses, the victim was under age eighteen at the time of the offense, and the defendant lives in a household with minor children or is the parent of a minor child. The legislation is codified at N.J.S.A. 2C:44-6.2 through -6.4 and N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.10c and -8.10d.

(a) Where Person Being Incarcerated Is Sole Caretaker of a Minor

The new law provides that for any person convicted of a crime for which he or she will be incarcerated, the court must order that, as part of the presentence investigation, a determination must be made as to whether the person being incarcerated is the sole caretaker of any minor child and, if so, who will assume responsibility for the child's care and custody during the period the person is incarcerated. The law also provides that in those situations the presentence investigation must include: (1) an inquiry and verification that the person who will be responsible for the child's care and custody during the period of the sole caretaker's incarceration has agreed to assume responsibility for the child's care and custody; and (b) a PROMIS/GAVEL network check, juvenile central registry check and domestic violence central registry check on the person who will be responsible for the child's care and custody during the period of the sole caretaker's incarceration as well as any other adult or juvenile over twelve years of age who is a member of that person's household.

The law further provides that the court shall provide DYFS with the information resulting from these inquiries. Upon receiving this information collected by the court, DYFS must conduct a child abuse record information check to ascertain whether there have been any substantiated incidents of child abuse or neglect against the person who will be responsible for the child's care and custody or any adult or juvenile over twelve years of age who is a member of that person's household. If, based on the information provided by the court and the check of its child abuse records, DYFS determines that the incarcerated person's minor child may be at risk of abuse or neglect or that the child's emotional, physical, health care, and educational needs will not be met during the period of the sole caretaker's incarceration, DYFS must take appropriate action to ensure the safety of the child.

(b) Conviction of Enumerated Offense Where Victim Was Under Age 18

L. 2003, c. 301 also addresses the separate situation where an individual has been convicted of any of a list of specifically enumerated offenses and the victim of the offense was under the age of 18 at the time. If in such situations, the person convicted of the crime is the parent of a minor child or resides in a household where there are other minor children, the court must make a referral to DYFS. The court must provide DYFS with the name and address of the person convicted of the crime, information on the person's criminal history, and the name and address of each minor child of the defendant and/or any minor child who resides in defendant's household.

As noted above, this two-part detailed protocol was developed by the Conference of Criminal Presiding Judges and Conference of Criminal Division Managers in consultation with representatives of the Division of Youth and Family Services.

Protocol to Implement L. 2003, c. 301

Referrals to DYFS (a) In Cases Involving the Care of Minor Children of Persons Being Incarcerated;
(b) In Cases Involving Persons Convicted of Certain
Enumerated Offenses Where Victim Was Under Age 18

Introduction

On January 14, 2004, Governor McGreevey signed A-3172 into law as L. 2003, c.301. The law is effective April 13, 2004. Attached is a copy of the law.

The new law provides that for any person convicted of a crime for which he or she will be incarcerated, the court must order that, as part of the presentence investigation, a determination must be made as to whether the person being incarcerated is the sole caretaker of any minor child and, if so, who will assume responsibility for the child's care and custody during the period the person is incarcerated. The law also provides that in those situations the presentence investigation must include: (1) an inquiry and verification that the person who will be responsible for the child's care and custody during the period of the sole caretaker's incarceration has agreed to assume responsibility for the child's care and custody; and (b) a PROMIS/GAVEL network check, juvenile central registry check and domestic violence central registry check on the person who will be responsible for the child's care and custody during the period of the sole caretaker's incarceration as well as any other adult or juvenile over twelve years of age who is a member of that person's household.

The law further provides that the court shall provide DYFS with the information resulting from these inquiries. Upon receiving this information collected by the court, DYFS must conduct a child abuse record information check to ascertain whether there have been any substantiated incidents of child abuse or neglect against the person who will be responsible for the child's care and custody or any adult or juvenile over twelve years of age who is a member of that person's household. If, based on the information provided by the court and the check of its child abuse records, DYFS determines that the incarcerated person's minor child may be at risk of abuse or neglect or that the child's emotional, physical, health care, and educational needs will not be met during the period of the sole caretaker's incarceration, DYFS must take appropriate action to ensure the safety of the child.

Additionally, the law also addresses the separate situation where an individual has been convicted of any of a list of specifically enumerated offenses and the victim of the offense was under the age of 18 at the time. If in such situations, the person convicted of the crime is the parent of a minor child or resides in a household where there are other minor children, the court must make a referral to DYFS. The court must provide DYFS with the name and address of the person convicted of the crime, information on the person's criminal history, and the name and address of each minor child of the defendant and/or any minor child who resides in defendant's household.

The Conferences of Criminal Presiding Judges and Criminal Division Managers, in consultation with representatives of the Division of Youth and Family, developed the following protocol to implement this law's requirements.

(a) Cases Involving the Care of Minor Children of Persons
Being Incarcerated (N.J.S.A. 2C:44-6.2)

- 1) When a defendant is convicted of a crime for which they may be incarcerated the judge shall order as part of the presentence investigation that a determination be made as to whether the defendant is the sole caretaker of a minor child and, if so, who will assume responsibility for the child's care and custody while the defendant is incarcerated.
- 2) When interviewing a defendant for a presentence investigation report and there is the possibility the defendant will be incarcerated, the Criminal Division Probation Officer must inquire whether the defendant is the sole caretaker of a minor child and, if so, who will assume responsibility for the child's care and custody during the period the defendant is incarcerated.
- 3) If the determination is made that the person is the sole caretaker of the child, the Criminal Division probation officer shall complete the Report On Alternate Care For the Dependents of Detainees.
- 4) The Criminal Division Probation Officer shall attempt to contact the person identified by the defendant by phone or mail to verify that the person has agreed to assume responsibility for the child's care and custody during the period of incarceration. The probation officer will obtain all the information about the caregiver required in section III of the Report on Alternative Care for Dependents of Detainees. The officer will document their efforts and information.
- 5) If the defendant can not provide the name of a caregiver the Probation Officer shall follow the procedures outlined in Directive #8-95 "Judiciary Guidelines - Alternate Care for Dependents of Persons Detained as a Part of the Judicial Process."
- 6) The Criminal Division Probation Officer shall conduct a search of the Promis Gavel network, juvenile central registry and domestic violence central registry for the person identified as assuming responsibility for the child and attach the results of the searches to the Report on Alternative Care for the Dependents of Detainees.
- 7) The probation officer will ask the identified caregiver to provide all the information required in section IV of the Report on Alternate Care for Dependents of Detainees for persons over the age of 12 living in their household.
- 8) The probation officer shall conduct a search of the Promis Gavel network, juvenile central registry and domestic violence created registry for the other residents over the age of 12 living in the caregivers household. The results of the searches will be attached to the Report on Alternative Care for the Dependents of Detainees.
- 9) The Criminal Division Probation Officer shall call the Division of Youth and Family Services Office of Child Abuse Control (OCAC) at 1-800-792-8610 and advise them that a referral will be faxed to them upon completion of the phone call.

10} The Criminal Division shall fax the Report on Alternate Care For the Dependents of Detainees form and the attached documentation to the Office of Child Abuse Control at Fax # (609) 588-2997 or (609) 588-2998.

*Although defendants placed into long term inpatient drug treatment programs pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2c:35-14 are not technically incarcerated, this protocol covers their placement and must be followed.

Protocol to Implement L. 2003, c. 301 in the Municipal Courts – Referrals to DYFS in Cases Involving Persons Convicted of Certain Enumerated Offenses Where Victim was Under the Age of Eighteen

Directive # 4-04 (supplement)
Issued by:

May 21, 2004
Richard J. Williams
Administrative Director

Directive #4-04 (dated April 13, 2003) set out a protocol for implementation of L. 2003, c. 301 in the Criminal Division. That legislation, signed into law on January 14, 2004 and effective as of April 13, 2004, (a) establishes requirements for the collection of information regarding the care of minor children when the sole caretaker is being incarcerated and for referrals to DYFS in certain such situations; and (b) provides for referrals to DYFS in certain instances where an individual is convicted of one or more specifically enumerated offenses, the victim was under age eighteen at the time of the offense, and the defendant lives in a household with minor children or is the parent of a minor child. The legislation is codified at N.J.S.A. 2C:44-6.2 through –6.4 and N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.10c and –8.10d. This supplemental memo sets out the protocol for implementation of that legislation in the municipal courts.

Section 3 of L. 2003, c. 301 requires municipal courts to make a referral to DYFS where a defendant is convicted of one of the enumerated offenses, the victim is a minor, and the defendant resides in a household with other minor children or is a parent of minor children.

Under the Act, where the defendant has been convicted of one of the enumerated offenses, the court must take certain steps. The enumerated offenses that are characterized as crimes by this statute are: (1) simple assault pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:12-1(a), (2) false imprisonment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:13-3, (3) lewdness pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:14-4(a), (4) an act of domestic violence predicated on any of the disorderly or petty disorderly persons offenses listed in N.J.S.A. 2C:25-19(a), and (5) endangering the welfare of an incompetent person pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:24-7.

When the municipal court finds a defendant guilty of any of the enumerated offenses, it should:

- Determine whether the victim was under 18 years old at the time of the offense;
- If so, the court should then determine whether the defendant resides in a household with any minor children or is the parent of a minor child;
- Should the defendant meet these criteria, the court must inquire as to the names and addresses of the children and must refer the matter to DYFS by completing the attached letter and “DYFS Referral” form.

You will notice from the attached detailed instructions that in order to complete the DYFS referral, court staff will need to do a search on the Promis-Gavel system. We recognize that at the present time some municipal court staff may not have had training on this aspect of the Promis-Gavel system. If your court staff needs assistance or has questions regarding a Promis-Gavel search, please contact the Help Desk at 1-800-343-7002 during regular business hours. Our customer support staff will assist you in obtaining the required information from the Promis-Gavel system and can also at that time arrange for training.

Section 1 of the law (codified at N.J.S.A. 2C:44-6.2) is applicable only to Superior Court. It provides that when the sole caretaker of a minor child is incarcerated, the Superior Court must provide certain information to DYFS. With regard to the procedure in municipal courts in a case where a minor child's caretaker is incarcerated, the municipal courts should continue to follow the procedures established in 1995 in Directive #8-95, "Judiciary Guidelines – Alternate Care for the Dependents of Persons Detained as Part of the Judicial Process." If you require a copy of Directive #8-95, you should contact your Municipal Division Manager to have a copy forwarded to your office.

Please advise appropriate staff of this new law. If you have any questions concerning this law, please contact Robert Smith, Assistant Director, AOC Municipal Court Services Division, at (609) 984-8241.
