

Sound Recording

Issued by: July 16, 1990
Robert D. Lipscher
Administrative Director

The Assignment Judges have authority from the Chief Justice to allow stenographers to come in and make a record of the proceedings to be used on appeal even though there is a sound recording instrument in the courtroom.

EDITOR'S NOTE

No change has been made to the original text.